TORONTO TIDINGS

Mr. and Mrs. James Green, of Chesley, who came down for our Bible conference were accompanied by the former's genial mother, whom her many friends here were so pleased to meet. They made a brief stop over at Guelph, while homeward bound.

Mr. Walter Bell, of Oshawa, spoke with great manifestation at our service here on May 4th, and his sermon was punctuated with many interesting and beneficial facts, which all present greatly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Grooms were favored with a visit from a couple of friends, of Oshawa, on May 16th, and while here the Grooms entertained them to the opening game of the International Baseball season at Maple Leaf Stadium that afternoon. Toronto won from Reading by 6 to 5.

That familiar Hamilton chap, Mr. Jesse Batstone was smiling as ever in our midst over the week-end of May 3d, and of course, "she" was smiling too.

Mr. George Bell took a run down to this city on May 4th, returning to St. Thomas the same evening. He certainly chaffs up the dust.

The Kicuwa Club held their first closing social on May 2d, in the gym of our church, and was a pronounced success from every angle. Not only were its own members there, but the club had extended invitations to the members of the Women's Association, the Board of Trustees and the Young People's Society, and as a result a very good turnout was an hand. The evening was devoted to fun of all sorts with plenty of eats to satisfy the inner man.

Mr. Percy Scott, who has been up in various parts of Western Ontario, since coming down from Saskatchewan, was in our midst over the week-end of May 3d, then left for the east, saying he was in hopes of obtaining work at the Cement Works at Point Ann, near Belleville.

Miss Carrie Brethour is still suffering great pain in her arm as the result of her bad fall on the icy pavement on St. Clair Avenue, late in the winter, and is constantly under the doctor's care. We are very sorry for her, but hope, with the advent of warmer weather, she will gradually improve.

Our Bible Class closed for the season on May 7th, with several speakers giving words of encouragement on the great good that is derived from attending such meetings, especially when addresses are given on pointed questions of the Living Word. Mr. William Hazlitt gave out that we are really physically deaf, but we should not be spiritually deaf.

After spending a few days her with her friends, Mrs. Asa Forrester and Mrs. W. W. Scott, following our recent Bible conference, Miss Clara Sherk went out to her home in South Cayuga to pack her grips, then returned to this city again, and is now working here. We are pleased to have her with us for she is a clever young maiden.

Mr. J. R. Byrne went up to Chatham, on May 3d, where he laid the foundation of a new mission station and we hope it will prosper henceforth. In and around the "Maple City," there are upwads of a score of our deaf friends, whom we hope will get together and grow profusely in spiritual harmony. Afterwards Mr. Byrne went on to Windsor and Detroit, where he gave two very good addresses to large crowds on Sunday, May 4th. Mr. Byrne is very optimistic on the results of his trip.

WATERLOO WEE BITS

Mrs. John A. Moynihan was a visitor to the home of Mrs. Newton Black recently, and on her way home called to see Mr. Charles Golds, Sr., who had been laid up, but is now back to work again.

Mr. and Mrs. Absalom Martin and family took a run out to Preston, on April 27th, to see Mrs. Ida C. Robertson, whom they found improving gradually. Mr. and Mrs. N. Black were also there.

ST. CATHERINES SALUTES

Mr. Arthur W. Ellis has been hard hit during the past few months, being unable to secure steady work in the carpentering line, but we hope the tide will steer into the way of prosperity soon.

Miss Helen A. Middleton, of Niagara Falls, Ont., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Hallett in Niagara Falls, N. Y., with whom she had a very pleasant time, and was greatly fascinated with the beauty and exquisiteness of the new Hallett home. It is certainly a home over which any couple would take immense pride to own. Helen coyly exclaimed, as she took leave of the Hallett hospitality, "Oh! I hope I'll have one like it some day."

Miss Ethel Hoare lost a loving brother by death a short time ago, and now has our sympathy.

After the Lloyd meeting, Miss Helen Middleton received an invitation to have tea at the home of Miss Sylvia Caswell's hearing sister here, and had a lovely time. She returned to the Falls on a late trolley car, accompanied by Miss Caswell as far as Stamford.

Mr. Lloyd Thornton, of Vineland, and his folks motored up from that place, on May 4th, to attend the Lloyd meeting in this city, and we were so delighted to meet them again.

Messrs. Arthur W. Ellis and Albert Watson were recently visiting Mr. William Wallace and his hearing wife, and enjoyed their call, but forgot to tell them of the Lloyd meeting.

Mr. Howard Lloyd and family, of Brantford, motored up to this city, on May 4th, and formally opened our new Mission Station and was greeted by an unusual large crowd, which bespeakers a happy omen for the future of our mission Mr. Lloyd spoke very earnestly of the value of such missions and also gave a very fine sermon. This station now supplants the former Niagara Falls station, and those who were here then declared the transfer was more suitable in various ways. Among those here then were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pilgrim, who motored down from Niagara Falls, bringing Miss Helen Middleton along with them.

BRIGHTON BRIGHTLIGHTS

Mr. Clinton Parker, late of Colborne, is now working on a farm for a prosperous farmer near Baltimore, and likes the change.

Mr. Thomas Dand accompanied by Mr. Andrew Alexander recently motored down to Napanee from here, and called on James Hartwick and his new bride and found them well and happy. They live with Mr. Hartwick's aged mother, and he works in the furniture factory in that prosperous town.

Miss Lena Shannon, of Oshawa, has moved with her folks from that city to this town, and we welcome them. Lena's brother, William, of Winnipeg, has been down for a visit lately, and it was the first time Lena had seen him in the past three years. Lena's father is running an ice-cream and soft drink parlor here.

Mrs. E. J. Brooks recently received word from Mrs. Clifford Parker, saying that they moved to Baltimore, near Cobourg, on April 15th, and are getting along very well in their new home. Their address is R. R. 3, Cobourg.

Mr. William J. Wright, of Orland, was a visitor here recently, and informed us that Mr. Thomas Hazelton, who is a traveling salesman for a well-known Toronto publishing firm, was in Orland vicinity not long ago. We regret to say that Mr. Wright has not been very well this spring, being bothered with rheumatism of a painful nature.

Mrs. E. J. Brooks recently heard from Mr. and Mrs. Hartley J. Head, of Picton, saying that they are as busy as usual. Hartley is employed at the Greenwood Cemetery in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Parker and child and Ligar Ball, of Baltimore, motored out to Dunnville to bring back Ligar's wife and children, who had been staying in Dunnville for several weeks. While away they visited St. Catharines and nearby points, and report a pleasant time.

LONDON LEAVES

The maple syrup season is about over and of our friends, who have been in its production were the Noyes brothers, Andrew and John, of Denfield, who turned out a very creditable supply of this delicious staple that was of very high quality.

Mr. Harry Buller, of Ridgetown, spent Easter week with a married sister in this city, and met many of his deaf friends in the meantime.

Mr. George Moore has returned after enjoying a fortnight with his brother and other relatives in Forest.

Mr. William Thompson and a younger brother, of Thamesville, passed through here on the C. P. R., en route to Omega, Sask., on April 9th, where they will run their 150-acre farm for the season.

Mr. Norman Gleadow, of Hamilton, conducted our service here on April 27th, and his sermon was very interesting and full of helpful hints. In this young man we can see a rising star. There was a splendid turnout. Mr. J. R. Byrne, of Toronto, will be here to lead the service on June 29th.

We regret to say that Mr. John Noyes, of Denfield, who has been suffering from bronchitis for over a year, is not in the best of health.

Mr. Herbert Wilson has the sympathy of all his friends upon the passing on of his dear mother, who crossed the Great Chasm on Good Friday in Detroit. She formerly lived in Chatham, Ont. Herbert has returned to this city after attending her funeral.

A very painful accident befell Harry, youngest son of Mr. John Noyes, of Denfield. While assisting in hewing down trees in his brother's woods, a large tree toppled over sooner than expected, and before Harry could scamper to safety he was struck on his side, breaking two ribs, but at time of writing is coming along very nicely.

The many friends and former schoolmates of Mr. and Mrs. William Riberty, of Detroit, Mrs. John A. Braithwaite, of Windsor, and Mrs. Arthur White, of Strathroy, were so delighted greet them once more, when they motored into this city on April 27th, to attend the Gleadow meeting.

May 4th was the third anniversary of death of William Gould, Jr.'s father, so well known by the deaf here and greatly missed by the family.

Mr. James Adkins, of Bothwell, was a week-end visitor of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gould, Jr., on April 26th, returning the following evening.

Mrs. W. H. Gould, Jr., reports having had a most enjoyable time in Toronto during the Bible conference, and feels most grateful to all who entertained her. Mr. Gould would have gone too, but found his business too pressing, but on Easter Sunday found time to take a run down to the nearby village of Richmond to spend the day with his wife's folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fishbein and children, along with Mrs. John Fisher took a trip down to Woodstock recently, and called on Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cone, Miss Iva Hughes and Mr. Charles A. Ryan, returning the same evening. They were pleased to note Miss Hughes improving so nicely.

Mr. Eddie Fishbein was the lucky winner in the cottie puzzle contest and received two valuable prizes, and was also highest bidder at the box social held here recently.

After a lingering illness, that confined her to the Victoria Hospital for a long time, Mrs. Charlotte Pincombe, widow of the late John Pincombe, passed through the valley of death and entered into the sunlight of eternity on May 6th, in her ninetieth year. She was one of the best known deaf ladies of this vicinity. The funeral, largely attended, took place to Poplar Hill Cemetery on May 8th.

Mr. Melvin Rourke, of Hamilton, was in this city from May 4th to 10th, and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fishbein. He was trying to get a job as pressman.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fishbein have bought a new stucco cottage on Burbrook Place in East London, and bargained for it with spot cash.

Mr. David Dark enjoyed Good Friday with the Noyes brothers on their syrup producing farm at Denfield.

Mr. Wilbur Elliott, of Detroit, was down in Ingersoll for a week, attending the funeral of his beloved father, who heard the Eternal Summons on April 27th, and then bade this life a last farewell.

He was in his eightieth year and had been in failing health for five years. He was born in Clinton and came to North Oxford township, near this town, thirty-eight years ago. He was a member of Trinity United Church. He is survived by three sons, Ernest, Ingersoll; Wilbur, Detroit; Roy, at home; one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Church, Galt; one brother, Thomas Elliott, Ingersoll, and one sister, Mrs. M. Patterson, Hamilton.

Among the deaf who attended the funeral of the deceased were Mrs. Willis and Mr. Henry Clements, of Galt; Mr. George Moore and Mr. W. H. Gould, of London, and Mr. Merton McMurray, of Ingersoll. Mr. Elliott has the sympathy of all his friends in his bereavement.

GENERAL GLEANINGS

We are pleased to state that Mr. Robert McKenzie, Sr., of New Durham, is out and around again after being laid up for several weeks lately with a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mr. John Taylor, of Singhampton, has recovered from a severe attack of the "flu." He was up in Feversham on business on May 6th. He is soon to give his barn a new roof.

Mr. Urian Schleman, of Kitchener, so we just hear, was struck by a radial car, between Kitchener and Preston, on May 7th, and died the same evening. His auto, which he was driving, was demolished. He was so deaf, he did not hear the electric car coming until it was too late.

HERBERT W. ROBERTS.

ROGERS

Monday morning, April 14th, news was received here that Mrs. Augustus Rogers had passed away the evening before at her home in Lake Alfred, Florida. The cause of her death was bronchial asthma from which she had been a great sufferer for years. The news came as a shock to the friends of Dr. and Mrs. Rogers, for at last accounts she had appeared to be gaining in strength, so much so that she was planning a visit to Danville in the near future.

It is just fifty years since Anne Arundel Wardroper, of Versailles, Ky., lately graduated from Bell Seminary, the predecessor of the present Kentucky College for Women, entered the training class here to prepare herself for the work of teaching the deaf.

She brought to the work a bright mind, youth, health and the enthusiasm that goes with these attributes. For eighteen years she was a successful and beloved teacher, resigning in 1898, in order that she might aid her husband more effectively with the home-life problems. It is fortunate for a school like this when the wife of the Superintendent is in touch and sympathy with his work and is discreet and tactful. There is much she can do indirectly to smooth out the little tangles, and lessen the friction incident to carrying on in a place where interests are often conflicting.

Mrs. Rogers was ever a helpful, wholesome personality in the life of the school, even in her later years when her influence was exerted from an invalid's chair. Her last years were shadowed with pain, but no one heard her complain. She suffered with rheumatism and bronchial asthma, from which she could find no relief. Two years ago, Dr. Rogers resigned the Superintendency of this school and the couple moved to Florida, in the vain hope that the climate would prove beneficial to Mrs. Rogers.

The remains were brought to Danville and interred from this school, her home for forty-eight years. In accordance with her wishes the service was very simple; they were conducted by her pastor, Dr. Madison Hart, of the Christian Church. The active pall-bearers were Messrs. M. J. Lee, M. N. Marcossan, M. B. Reed, A. B. Brown, W. C. Simpson and G. M. McClure, and the honorary pall-bearers were the members of the Board of Commissioners of this school and the officers of the Christian Church, of Danville.

Mrs. Rogers will be greatly missed in the circle that she adorned for so many years; she was a bright brave spirit, on whose lips was ever the law of kindness, and who loved to do good to those about her. The deaf of Kentucky loved and will long remember her.

The sympathy of every one here is with our old friend, Dr. Rogers in the heavy sorrow that has come to him.—Kentucky Standard.

OMAHA

The Midwest Chapter of the G. C. A. A. held its twenty-eighth annual banquet, Saturday evening, May 3d, at Hotel Chieftain in Council Bluffs. It was one of the prettiest banquets in the chapter's history. The "Rainbow Terrace" which was used, has a ceiling painted in a mosaic effect with all the colors of the rainbow. The walls are brick, and one gets the impression of a picturesque garden with an aristocratic oriental atmosphere. The tables formed a T and were decorated with seven tall vases of American Beauties. Two "Gallaudet" pennants hung on the walls. The place cards were buff and blue, bearing the college seal and the programs were a perfect match, both neat and artistic, thanks to President McConnell and Messrs. Thompson and Scarvie. One faithful member of long standing was absent, our good friend, Dr. J. Schuyler Long, who was at Immanuel Hospital for a second time. He has attended every banquet save one or two. He would have liked to get out and make a bee line for the banquet, for, while not at all well, he has been in good spirits and hoping for the best. The chapter sent all the table flowers to him next day through Mrs. Long, who considered it a beautiful idea, as it was. Below is the menu and program:—

Mixed Olives	Fruit Cocktail	Radishes	Celery
	Veal Cutlet
	Long Branch Potatoes
	Buttered Green Beans
	Rolls
Head Lettuce	Thousand Island Dressing
Black Walnut Ice-cream	Sugar Wafers
	Coffee

TOASTS
Toastmaster Mr. Eugene McConnell
"Most welcome!"
Be sprightly, for you fall 'mongst friends."
Our Annual Banquet Mr. Owen Study
"This night is ours and many more shall be."
Vocational Training at Gallaudet Mr. Norman G. Scarvie
"If knowledge be the mark, to know thee shall suffice."

"H" Mr. Tom L. Anderson
"Their memory shall as a pattern or a measure live."
Keeping Pace with Progress Mr. George F. Wills
"Brave conquerors, for so you are."
Auld Lang Syne Mr. Harry G. Long
"The goodness of the night upon you, friends."

As toastmaster, Mr. McConnell did well. Owen Study's subject could hardly have been better handled and the jokes he interspersed between were good. Norman Scarvie spoke of what was being taught at Gallaudet and what should be added. Tom L. Anderson started off with memories of dear old Hotchkiss field, endeared to all as "garlic field." He gave several good points on the E. M. G. Memorial fund and said we should build a worthwhile and valuable memorial in honor of our beloved patron. He also took us back to the far famed "H" Street which needs no description to Alumni. George F. Wills had a serious subject. He said he could not see any place for jokes in his speech, and wondered what Dr. Gallaudet would do were he alive today. No doubt he would wish continued progress with the college. Harry G. Long ended the program with his graceful and rhythmic rendition of the "good night" song, Auld Lang Syne. Impromptu speeches were made by Superintendent and Mrs. Frank W. Booth and Superintendent and Mrs. O. W. McIntire. They banded each other in a good-natured way. Then those who wished to play bridge went to the Beaux Arts room, where tables were arranged. Mrs. McIntire and Mr. Study won lovely decks of cards for high scores, and the consolations went to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anderson. It was a splendid banquet and a great night.

Chester Foxword, of Pender, Neb., underwent an operation in the latter part of April for a nasal trouble. He is taking a month's rest, and hereafter intends doing light work, instead of working on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Palmer expect to leave, in the near future for Minnesota to live. They were given a farewell party, engineered by Mesdames John Holter, John Toner and Clifford Ormes. Their friends presented them with a fine pressure cooker.

Mrs. Robert W. Mullin gave a surprise birthday party for her husband on May 11th. He was lured to the home of Eugene Fry for supper, and on his return was greeted by a roomful of conspirators. He lost his power of speech, but not for long. Three tables of bridge furnished a diversion, Harry G. Long and Owen Study winning the prizes. Tasty refreshments were served and "Bob" received several birthday tokens, both ornamental and useful.

Victor J. Beran is the proud possessor of a new Ford sedan and has since been burning up the roads, driving in all directions, on pleasure bent.

Mrs. Eva Comp and Mrs. Ota Blankenship and a friend of Miss Evelyn Comp motored down to Olathe, Kan., April 17th to 20th, and were guests at the Kansas school. They were dinner guests of the McIlvaines on Friday, and Mrs. Simpson and Miss Kate Meldrum gave a bridge party for them that evening. They lunched with Miss Rogers Saturday noon, and had dinner with Superintendent and Mrs. Menzemer Sunday. No doubt they had a glorious time.

Messrs. John Flood and Emmet Osterlink drove to Des Moines, Ia., on the afternoon of April 5th, to attend Des Moines Frats "Kid" party, but were unable to locate the hall. However, they happened to meet a crowd of the merry-makers after the party. Next day they visited the John Robinson home and found a large circle of friends on hand and enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. Mr. Osterlink's Essex coach went out of commission and refused to go, so they left it with Robert Grant to be repaired and came home with Francis Jacobson. Later Mr. Osterlink went back to Des Moines to get his car and now he is happy once more.

The Iowa school has been invited to enter a baseball team, composed of players under sixteen years of age, in a tourney sponsored by the American Legion in Council Bluffs. An elimination contest will be conducted and a team composed of the best players in the school will take up in the state tourney to be held later.

Owing to a bank failure last winter Lyman Hull, of Quitman, Mo., has not been down this way for a long time. He lost all his savings and has given up hopes of getting any of it back.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Jelinek attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. Jelinek's parents, at Plattsmouth, on Sunday, May 4th. The children and their families had a dinner together, and later about seventy-five friends came over laden with all kinds of refreshments. Musical selections, popular in their native Czechoslovakia added to the enjoyment of the afternoon. They received handsome presents and a purse of gold.

Omaha Division of the N. F. S. D. will give a "Hot Picnic" on the Nebraska school grounds, Sunday, June 22d, starting at 1:30 p.m. lasting till midnight. Chairman Bro. Nick Peterson assisted by Bros. Abe Rosenblatt, Hans Neufahr, Charles Macek and Bennie Delehey, have a lot of surprises up their sleeves. Everybody is welcome. The ladies are requested to bring lunch boxes containing enough for two, but these will not be sold at auction, as in the past. Admission to the grounds will be twenty-five cents. A large crowd is expected and a "hot time" in store for all.

Millard Bilger has a good steady job with the Ford Motor Co. this spring. He is also a full-fledged frat.

Mrs. Ziba L. Osman is working in the drapery department at Orchard-Wilhelm's store. She held a similar position before her marriage.

John Holland, of Warsaw, N. Y., and Mrs. Busson, of Indianapolis, were visitors at the M. E. Mission, Sunday May 10th. The former may make Chicago his future home, if his position is steady, but the latter came on an excursion for a few days.

W. B. Gaston had a fine expensive washing machine installed in his laundry recently and is progressing as well as should be expected under the circumstances. His accomplishments are not only a credit to himself, but to the deaf at large.

There were no social activities or meetings at the C. D. C. house, Sunday, May 11th, as it rained all day and night and kept the members away.

Guess who is with us again. Well, it is no other than our old friend, C. O. Basleu, who has been in New York City for the past year. Whether his stay this time will be indefinite or permanent, we have yet to find out.

A DEAF-MUTE is said to have discovered gold in Germany—not a vein or a mother lode, as Americans understand it. But a buried treasure of gold and silver coins, according to a dispatch to the Associated press, which reads:—

DEAF-MUTE DIGS UP FORTUNE IN CELLAR.

ELDING, Germany, May 14—A deaf-mute, who was digging in the cellar of his home here, unearthed a buried treasure of gold and silver coins—fifty pounds of them.

Of the gold coins, 380 bore the dates 1775, 1786 and 1794.

Dr. Long is Ill

Dr. J. S. Long is at Immanuel Hospital in Omaha under the care of a physician, suffering from a renal calculus. His friends were very much concerned to hear that an operation was deemed necessary, shortly after he was taken to the Hospital for observation, April 17th. An X-ray photograph revealed the presence in one kidney of a stone, lying in a dangerous position and causing great pain. Dr. Long was actually on the operating table, when the surgeon decided, after scrutiny of a fresh photograph, that the stone had moved into a less dangerous position and deferred the operation in the hope that none would eventually be needed. This experience was a great shock to Dr. Long, and although he returned to the school in apparently good shape, and tried to take up his office work, it was found that his nervous system was not equal to the strain, and he was accordingly returned to the hospital on April 29th, for a complete rest, and further observation.

The office routine is being carried out by Miss Wilcoxson, and all are co-operating to the end that the school work runs on smoothly as their contribution to the Principal's peace of mind, while trusting that the rest and respite from all responsibility will quickly bring him around again.—Iowa Hawkeye.

INDIA

MISS DUKE REPORTS A TOUCHING CASE

Margaret H. Duke, a former student, who is in India under the Foreign Board of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., is teaching in a school at Kodoli, West India, and has many interesting experiences to report. Here is one which indicates the hard lot of unfortunate children in India.

"I was visiting in the Mang (out-caste) quarters last week and discovered a little deaf and dumb girl. She followed us from grass hut to grass hut and sat in front of me, eyes glued on my face, though she could not hear a word I was saying. My heart went out to her immediately. Last Sunday I saw her in church. The little girls sitting beside her pushed her away as if her touch would contaminate them. When I called at her house the other morning, lo and behold! she had run off to school. She comes every day now, and on time too. I wonder what she can get out of it, sitting all day in school, but it shows how much she desires to learn. I dread to think of what would become of her if she grew up without education, and I am planning to send her away to a school for the deaf and dumb."—Biblical Seminary Bulletin.

Following is from the New York Times:—

"Prince Jaime, second son of King Alfonso, of Spain, was installed as honorary president of the National Institute for the Blind and Deaf." The prince himself was born a deaf-mute, but by prolonged teaching can now speak.

In the organized work of church and charity she gave enthusiastic and invaluable aid.

Restored, That this memorial minute be transcribed upon the book of records of the parish, that a copy be sent to the immediate family of our departed friend, that it be published in "St. Ann's Bulletin" and the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL.

ST. LOUIS

The Third Baptist Church, Washington and Grand Avenues, had a good gathering on the first Sunday of this month, arranged by Messrs. Thos. Joell and Robert Stout. They will have another meeting June 1st. Give those young gentlemen a helping hand.

Rev. Barclay Meador, Mrs. O. A. Schneider, Mrs. E. D. Brave, Mrs. Ida Udell, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Stafford took advantage of visiting the Hard of Hearing Department on Olive Street recently. They tried the instruments, but failed to hear anything except the buzzing of the electricity.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood, of the New York Insurance Co., of St. Louis, who is related to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bretscher, have been transferred to Madison, Mich., where he has a better place. They say fishing out there is fine and want their parents to come out.

May 14, the Gallaudet Club, of 1041 North Grand Avenue, had a fire in their neighborhood. It did considerable damage to the club room, but fortunately the insurance company adjusted everything to their satisfaction. The owner will put everything in good condition as soon as possible. The insurance was gotten out by Mr. Oliver Berwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Berwin.

Sunday, May 18th, many of the deaf motored to Warrenton, Mo., to attend the Home Fund Picnic, arranged by Mr. Williams, of Fulton, Mo. It being centrally located, they had a large attendance to help swell the Home Fund. It is about time they should have a Home for the aged deaf-mutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. E. Bremer, after living at 2715 Accomac Avenue for some time, are now comfortably housed at 5053 Louisiana Avenue, where their many friends can find them.

Work in St. Louis is still very poor for experienced hands. The laboring class seems to be doing good.

The Silent Boreans will have a social affair at the Christian Church, May 23d, where everybody is welcome to have a good time and meet their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Eudorus Harden have sent out invitations to their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Saturday evening, May 31, 1930, at eight o'clock, at Jeffala Hall, Lafayette and Jefferson Avenues.

May 15th the "500" ladies' club met at Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. Moegle's home, at 3448 Michigan Street. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon and the eats and prizes were elaborate.

The Gallaudet Club will have a basket party, June 15th, engineered by Rose Sutton.

Mr. Joseph Palecek, a fisherman on Sundays and a mattressmaker on week days, went to Lake Creve Coeur recently and brought home a good string of fish. Ask him to take you out some time, as he knows a good place.

The Thomas Mission for the Deaf (Episcopal) will have a supper and bazaar at the Tuttle Memorial Building, May 24th, from 6 to 10 P.M.

Max Blackschleger, a first-class ladies' dressmaker, has been working at his brother-in-law's store, the Barney Army Goods, for lack of orders at his dressmaking firm. He hopes to see business improve soon. He and his family are at the apartment on Union and Cates Avenues.

DIXIELAND

Rev. Robert Fletcher, the newly appointed Episcopal minister to the deaf of the South, preached his first sermon in Atlanta on "Mother's Day," May 11th. Rev. Mr. Fletcher is quite young man, of pleasing appearance, a fluent sign maker, and made a most favorable impression upon his Atlanta audience. It has been arranged to have Mr. Fletcher preach in Atlanta on the second Sunday of each month in the future. This gives Atlanta three regular ministers, Methodist, Baptist and Episcopal, all of whom are well supported and have large congregations at their services regardless of denomination. Rev. Fletcher's next visit here will be on June 7th and 8th next, lecturing at the Y. M. C. A. on the evening of the 7th, and preaching on Sunday afternoon at St. Phillips Cathedral, and he is sure to be favored with a most enthusiastic and interested audience upon both occasions.

The Ross Johnsons have a brand new Chevrolet sedan of the latest design, and are now enjoying trips over the good roads of Atlanta. They can be seen any Sunday afternoon with a friend or two motoring around. They are one jump ahead of the other deaf hereabouts, as regards the ownership of a real, nice, new car. We congratulate them.

Mr. P. W. Ligon is another owner of a new car—a Ford sedan—which came into his possession through his endorsing a friend in its purchase. The friend failing to meet the payments on the car, took possession of it and is finishing the payments himself. Meantime he is learning to drive in his spare time and expects soon to be driving his own car around.

The dinner given by Atlanta Division, No. 28, N. E. S. D., on May 9th, in commemoration of its Twentieth Anniversary, was a most elaborate affair, attended by about one hundred of Atlanta's deaf population. The dinner was spread at the new "Tung Sun" Restaurant, 471 Peachtree Street. The Tung Sun, owned and operated exclusively by Chinese, was recently opened here in a fashionable down-town section and is fast becoming a favorite eating place for the elite. One can obtain either American or Chinese dishes here, according to their taste. This was the Chinese first experience with a large body of deaf, and they exerted themselves to make the occasion pleasing and satisfying to everybody. Mrs. M. M. Simmons acted as interpreter for the occasion.

The tables were tastefully arranged and the menu super-excellent, cooked to perfection. In fact, this writer who has attended many, many affairs of this kind here, candidly believes this "Twentieth Anniversary Dinner" capped the climax of all previous affairs of its kind ever held in Atlanta. We must admit, though, that we have a sneaking suspicion that the deaf benefited in the excellence of the arrangements, services and menu given, by which the Chinese desire to advertise their new place. In any event, we must hand it to Tung Sun for a most delicious dinner. Our hats are off to them.

Mr. L. B. Dickerson acted as Toastmaster and while there was no set program for these toasts, he called upon various leading deaf to make brief speeches. First, he himself, spoke briefly, explaining the occasion for gathering and paid a touching tribute to the late Francis P. Gibson, and his last message to "carry on." He also mentioned the great benefits to be derived from being a member of this organization. He then called Rev. S. M. Freeman, who opened his remarks by saying that twenty years was a long time, but that we had arrived at it like a flash, showing how rapidly the years were passing us by. He then spoke of Mr. Gibson's integrity, faithfulness and honesty of purpose, and pointed out how Mr. Gibson followed the road to his goal as straight as the river follows its way to the sea, and that he never allowed himself to be lured or tempted off the straight course, and that he taken charge of the N. E. S. D. when the Society was at its lowest ebb and built it up to what it is today, over a million dollar organization with almost fourteen thousand members, the greatest organization for the deaf in all the world.

Mr. I. H. Marchman was the next speaker who remarked on coming to the platform—a large box covered with a rug—that he felt like a "soap box orator," as he supposed he was standing upon a soap box. He first read a list of the Charter members, calling for them to come forward and let the audience see them. Only four, Messrs. Dickerson, Gholdston, Jordan and Marchman were present. He paid tribute to Percy W. Ligon, to whom the credit of organizing the Atlanta Division rightfully belongs. Next he read a list of the first set of officers elected, who were: P. W. Ligon, President; John Stockard, Vice-President; I. H. Marchman, Secretary; and L. B. Dickerson, Treasurer. In closing his address, Mr. Marchman remarked that when the Atlanta Division was first organized over half of the frats present were in their cradles.

Ross Johnson was next to speak. He spoke of the time the treasurer carried the Divisions money in his pocket, the amount being so small they were ashamed to bank it and waited several months until the amount grew large enough to make a respectable showing before they opened a bank account. He then read telegrams of congratulation from Grand Treasurer, Roberts and several other friends.

The next "soap box orator" was Mr. W. E. Gholdston who caused considerable merriment by recounting some past reminiscences of old times, and telling of some of his experience when he first arrived in Atlanta, a raw schoolboy, and his first meeting with "mother Jackson" who was then working at the same printing shop that gave him his first job in Atlanta.

Miss Margie Weaver, President of the Nadfrat Woman's Club, next took the floor and spoke on behalf of the club and congratulated the organization on its long and useful years of service. Other speakers called on, but whose speeches were necessarily curtailed on account of the lateness of the hour, were Mesdames Gholdston and Jackson—and Mr. Arthur Chambers. A beautiful bouquet varicolored Sweet Peas were then distributed to each person present, the gift of the Nadfrat Club complimentary to the Frats.

Before closing our article, this writer, who has known every Atlanta frat, past and present, and who has worked steadfastly with them during all these twenty years, in their work for the general welfare of the Atlanta deaf, frats and non-frats like, wishes to pay a small tribute to Atlanta's "Big 4," Messrs. Dickerson, Gholdston, Ligon and Marchman, who have kept Division, No. 28, alive during these twenty long years. They have stood like the "Rock of Gibraltar," carrying the greater load of its burdens upon their own shoulders and prevented the Division from going to pieces many times during business depressions and other troubles. Only those who have worked for the deaf can realize the debt of gratitude the Atlanta deaf owe to these men, and others who came in a little later to help them "carry on." These four men have devoted the greater part of their time, energy and money during the past twenty years to the welfare of the deaf, fraternal, secular and religious, with but little evidence of appreciation from the majority of the deaf. We congratulate them upon their long and faithful services and assure them that their labors will not be lost, for:—

"God gives us joy that we may give
He gives us love that we may share;
Sometimes He gives us loads to lift
That we may learn to bear.
For life is gladder when we give,
And love is sweeter when we share
And heavy loads rest lightly, too,
When we have learned to bear.

Mrs. S. M. Freeman, 69, wife of the Rev. Samuel Mills Freeman, minister to the deaf at St. Mark's church, Atlanta, died at her home, 108 Greenwood Place, Decatur, Wednesday, May 14th, following a brief illness. Mrs. Freeman, with her husband, came to Georgia nearly forty years ago from Springfield, Ohio, settling first at Cave Spring, where her husband was connected with the Georgia State School for the Deaf. They came to Decatur about ten years ago.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Freeman is survived by a sister, Mrs. W. A. Purdon, of Springfield; a son, Sam Freeman, of Cincinnati, and two daughters, Mrs. J. William Seitz, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. M. M. Simmons, of Decatur.—Atlanta Constitution.

Atlanta, May 12.

The Capital City

A large number of deaf flocked to the Baptist Church to hear Rev. A. D. Bryant's preaching on Mother's Day. The sermon was "Behold Thy Mother," taking St. John 19:25 to 30 for his text. Three important words—Jesus, Home, Mother. He preached, paying tribute to mothers of our country. Mrs. R. J. Stewart beautifully rendered "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

The historic convict ship, "Success," is now lying at the Seventh Street wharf, crowded with people inspecting it.

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Bryant and Mr. and Mrs. Crantson motored to Connecticut early Monday morning, May 12th, to look after their properties. They will return before next Sunday.

The pupils of Kendall Green School had a picnic all day, Friday, May 16th.

Edelen, who has been in the printing and clerical department at St. Elizabeth Hospital under the Interior Department the past forty-one years, will receive a good promotion, to take effect July 1st, and bring in a sub-professional service and will receive a good raise in pay. Mr. Henry Onisk, of Detroit, is in the city, looking for a better job. He prefers to work in a laundry. He was seen at the Baptist Church Sunday evening, May 11th. He stated he had a job as a laundryman in New York City lately, but had to quit it because the New York climate did not agree with him.

Tickets are selling like Hot Cakes for the annual boat excursion to Marshall Hall, Saturday, June 7th. Some changes have been made at the Hall. Come every one of you and bring your children.

Mrs. E. E. Bernsdorf is reported as much better.

The old Chesapeake Beach, where the Washington deaf spend their annual summer vacations, is now only a memory and in its place is being erected a modern amusement, Mecca known as Seaside Park.

Miss Julia Palmer, a Normal student at Gallaudet College, has accepted to teach at the Minnesota School for the Deaf next fall. She is a very charming lady, well-liked by all of the Washington deaf. She attends regularly at both churches, Episcopal and Baptist.

The following clipping was taken from the Washington Herald of May 14th:—

STAUNTON, Va., May 13.—Nearly sixty Boy Scouts attended a court of honor held at St. Paul's U. B. Church here.

Unique among the exhibits was one in woodworking and painting by deaf scouts of the V. S. D. B. These included a totem pole, carved figures of scouts and of Admiral Richard E. Byrd, and an alarm clock for the deaf. The latter consisted of an ingenious mechanism which turns on an electric light at the hour the sleeper desires to be awakened.

The military ceremonies began at 2:45, and were as follows:—

Review by Lieutenant Charles Dwyer, 71st Infantry, N.Y.N.G. Setting up Exercises.

Evening Parade.

Competition in the Manual of Arms—Judges, Lieutenant Charles Dwyer and Lieutenant Sylvester Meighan, 71st Infantry, N.Y.N.G.

Awarding of Medals.

Dismissal of Colors.

Music by the Cadet Band during the Competition.

The cadets went through the Evening Parade and setting-up exercises with snap and precision, that reflected credit on themselves and their military instructors.

Great interest was manifested in the competition in the manual of arms. There was much excitement among the pupils as the judges penalized the slightest deviation from perfect form and the number of competitors grew smaller and smaller until the final selections were made.

The winners of this year's medals are as follows:—

The Russell Gold Medals for highest proficiency in the school of the soldier, were awarded as follows: Company "A"—Cadet Walter Shafran.

Company "B"—Cadet Corporal Vincent Sherman.

The George Moore Smith Medals, for excellence in the Manual of Arms, were awarded as follows:

Company "A"—Cadets Leon Auerbach and Louis Pacifico.

Company "B"—Cadet Lance Corporal Nicholas Cairano and Cadet John Black.

The Gold Medal for Excellence in Band and Field Music, was won by Cadet Lieut. and Band Leader Ernest Marshall.

The Sanger Memorial, for excellence in the band, was won by Cadet Albert Pyle.

The Principal's Gold Medal, for the best drill officer, was awarded to Cadet Captain William Rayner.

On the evening of May 14th, eight of the Cadet Officers were invited to a dinner by Colonel Gardner. Captain Altenderfer acted as host at the party. The menu, prepared by Chef William Stokely, was as follows:—

Fruit Cocktail	Mashed Potatoes
Chicken a la King	Peas
Salad of Lettuce and Tomatoes stuffed with Cream Cheese	Rolls
Salted Nuts	Mints
Ice-cream	Cake
	Coffee

It was a grand spread and properly disposed of. The guests were Cadet Captains Giordano and Rayner, Lieuts. Marshall, Glass and Salamanda, Sergeants Herbst, Kowalewski and Benison. After dinner the guests competed for prizes in ping-pong and dominoes. The winner of the prize for excellence in both games was Cadet Sergeant Oscar Benison, and the winner of the booby prize for the lowest score was Cadet Captain William Rayner. Benison received a pair of Kumapart cuff links, and Rayner received a box of candy, which he was required to distribute at once.

Last Saturday afternoon, our baseball team played with the strong semi-professional Chapel team and it was a one-sided game.

The game was short, as it started at four o'clock. In the first inning, the Chapel team made five runs. The final score was 9 to 0.

On Tuesday afternoon, Prof. Iles took the High Class and also his Junior High Class pupils to visit the United States battleship, the West Virginia, anchored off 112th Street.

They made both trips in a bus and enjoyed the ride immensely. They boarded a navy launch at 96th Street, and were taken to the West Virginia. They learned a lot about warships. Mrs. Iles and Prof. Iles' sister also accompanied the pupils. The same afternoon Miss Teegarden took her class to see the cruiser, "Milwaukee," anchored near 155th Street, and they also had an enjoyable time.

Among the first pupils here to go to the Steeplechase Park at Coney Island to swim in the pool there, were Sergeant George Herbst, Corporals Edward Banis and Louis Balkoski, and Cadets John Kowalczyk, Irving Auslander, Thomas Kolenda and Alexander Ovary. They went on the afternoon of Saturday, May 10th, and had much fun playing in the pool, and some got a nice coat of tan.

On the afternoon of Monday, May 12th, Miss Otis took her 6B Class to visit the cruiser Milwaukee. Being anchored near the school, they walked down to 155th Street, and boarded a small navy launch, which took them to the cruiser. One of the sailors took them all on the ship and they all enjoyed the visit.

Parents' Day was observed here on the afternoon of Friday, May 16th, among the classes of the Kindergarten and Junior Primary Department. Many of the small pupils' parents were present and at three o'clock they witnessed the parade by the cadets.

Judging from the advance sale of tickets, there will be a large crowd at the annual field games at Fanwood in the afternoon of May 30th. Entries in the events are plentiful, so there will be lots of excitement.

Mr. Lux wishes to announce that the game of Ping Pong has been added to the program of school games. Contestants in each game will be charged five cents. A winning set consists of two out of three games.

NEW YORK

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

THE "LITTLE CONEY ISLAND"

On Saturday, May 17th, all of the rooms of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League were put in use, and still there was not ample room for the purpose the committee had planned for this entertainment, which is the second one undertaken by this organization.

Chairman Lawrence Tiner had no easy thing about it. Yet he and his committee prepared — over prepared is right, that is if you take in consideration the amount of refreshments that they ordered. They prepared twice as much as was required. The crowd was there all right, but it seems that not all of them were either hungry or thirsty.

Perhaps it was the Coney Island imitations in the two large rooms that most interested them, for here one could play any kind of game for prizes, and also play the horses for ten cents a race and win—if your luck was good — 5 to 1.

Perhaps the center of attraction was trying to burst a toy balloon suspended from the ceiling. The prizes were inviting; for merely hitting the balloon twice you got a real "Havana," and for bursting it a cartoon of "Old Gold" which at retail is $1.50, and to the ladies a box of "sweets." Only one succeeded in bursting the balloon—Max Kantrow.

There were many other attractions, including auctioning of costly articles. Some were lucky and others, of course, failed after several attempts.

The affair was well conducted and orderly, and reflects great credit to the committee Messrs. Lawrence Tiner, Harry Kurz, Joseph Goldstein, Fred Mayer and Abraham Lasinsky.

The Recreation room was devoted to refreshments. Here "Hot Dogs," a la Coney Island style, and various kind of soft drinks and ice-cream were on sale all evening.

Including the admission—which was twenty-five cents a person—and the proceeds from the refreshments and from the various games, a very neat sum was realized. This entertainment will go a great way in paying for the new billiard table installed earlier in the week. The music on this occasion was furnished by deaf talent from Fanwood—three in number, Messrs. Port Marshall and Fucci.

Among those present was an ex-New Yorker, but now a Los Angeles resident — Mrs. Joseph Sonneborn. Her lamented husband was a member of the League, and when they lived in New York, they knew all the members by sight, but now with a roll of 400 she only knew a few. However, the few were glad to meet her again.

The following is taken from the New York Times, of Wednesday, May 14th, 1930:—

FRANK ROBERTS

RETIRED BUSINESS EXECUTIVE AND FORMER BOAT BUILDING DISS

Frank Roberts, retired business man, died suddenly after a stroke of apoplexy on Sunday at the home of a nephew, Frank Roberts, of 139-72 Eighty-sixth Avenue, Jamaica, Queens, with whom he had recently made his home. He was seventy-nine years old and retired eleven years ago as secretary of the Blackman Talking Machine Company, now the Blackman Distributing Company, 28 West 23d Street.

Born in New York City, Mr. Roberts took up as a young man the building of racing shells and other small boats in the business which had been established on the banks of the Harlem River by his father, the late Stephen Roberts, once an Alderman. He continued in that line until the latter part of the last century, when he became associated with the Blackman Company. For many years he was a resident of Bay Shore, L. I., and only recently moved to Jamaica. He was a member of several fraternal organizations. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Clara Roberts. Funeral services will be held at the Funeral Home, 138 East 57th Street, Manhattan. Burial in White Plains Thursday morning.

Mr. Frank Roberts was not a deaf-mute, but the husband of a deaf-mute, Mrs. Clara Roberts. He was a fine man, a true and loyal husband. The writer knew him best when the couple lived on Washington Heights, the pleasant time he enjoyed at their hospitable home and also in the boat house on the Hudson. The writer was still a pupil at Fanwood at the time and he then greatly marveled at the work this man was doing, and that he later achieved success in his undertakings after he moved to Rutherford, N. J., and later at Bay Shore, L. I.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Clara Roberts, a true friend of many years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ahearn entertained at their home, College Point, L. I., in celebration of the tenth birthday of their daughter, Dorothy.

The decorations were yellow and green and multi-colored balloons were suspended from the ceiling. A tent in the center of the table held party favors for the children.

Dorothy received many gifts. Those present were Edward Ahearn, Junior, Irene Belsky, Gladys Fowler, Mrs. and Mrs. Kahl, Mrs. Boller, Mr. and Mrs. Thorogood, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and children, and others.

Mr. Hyman Gordon's mother passed away last week.

THE BUS RIDE

Tickets for the Bus Ride to the Gallaudet Home, on Friday, May 30th, are still available. Two buses are filled and a third about three-fourths full. The fourth and last bus will probably be grabbed quickly, but no seats will be sold after Sunday, May 25th. Goshen, Port Jervis, Walden and Albany deaf-mutes will have excursions to the Home on the same day.

H. A. D.

The final meeting of the season passed off harmoniously last Sunday afternoon. Nineteen new members have now brought the roster well over the 400 mark and it should not be long before the H. A. D. will have 500 on its books. Plans for expansion of activities will be mapped out during the summer months and announced in due course.

On Sunday evening, a full house witnessed Al Jolson's famous screen classic "Sonny Boy," featuring Davy Lee, as well as two Grantland Rice sportlights and a comic reel.

Regular Friday evening services at the Temple Emanu-El Auditorium, 1 East 65th Street, will close this Friday, the 23d. On Tuesday evening, the 27th, at 8 P. M. Confirmation Exercises of the Fanwood religious classes will be held at the Hebrew Tabernacle, West 161st Street between Broadway and Fort Washington Avenue. All are welcome.

Mrs. Tillie Sonneborn, of Los Angeles, Cal., was guest of honor at a luncheon and "500" tendered her at the residence of Mrs. Marcus L. Kenner last Saturday afternoon, May 17th. Five tables were occupied and resulted in the following winners: Mrs. Louis A. Cohen, first prize; Miss Edith Scovell, second; Mrs. Joseph Peters, third; Mrs. Isaac Moses, fourth. A special prize went to Tillie, who expressed herself as charmed to be back again among old New York friends, but—oh, you California! She's already hankering for a return, and those who have tasted of its climate surely will not blame her.

Though a new pocket billiard table has been added, the pocket-billiard tournament started two months ago, is dragging on slowly. More slowly than in former years, when the Deaf-Mutes' Union League only had two tables, whereas now it has four. A billiard table has been contracted for, and is expected to be installed in a few days. This will be five tables in the billiard room of the League.

Rev. J. Stanley Light, Missionary to the deaf in New England, held services in Buffalo, Rochester, and Syracuse, New York, on the invitation of the Missionary in charge of the work in the State, on Sunday, May 4th. On his way home, in order to save time, he traveled by airplane from Albany, N. Y., to Bridgeport, Ct., which is thought to be the first instance of a deaf clergyman's using that mode of travel in connection with his work.

On May 18th, Mr. and Mrs. M. Schoenfeld celebrated the forty-fifth anniversary of their wedding, with only their children and grandchildren assisting in honoring the glad event. On June 17th, Mr. Schoenfeld will reach his seventy-seventh year, and he is hale, hearty and debonair.

Mrs. Rose Scheifer was married to Mr. Adolph Buhl, on Saturday, May 17th. Rev. G. C. Braddock officiated. Miss Margaret Branfuhr was bridesmaid and Mr. George Schmidt best man. A reception followed the ceremony.

The A. L. Marks and son are now associated with the Danish Silver-smiths at 7 West 45th Street, New York City, where they formerly were located, but also have a show room at 381 Fifth Avenue, between 35th and 36th Streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Demmerle have returned home after a week-end visit with her parents at Sound Beach, L. I., where they are opening their summer home.

By the time this issue of the JOURNAL reaches its readers, Mr. Samuel Frankenheim will be in Buffalo, N. Y., looking after several details connected with the pedestal of the De l'Epee Statue. He may remain in the Bison City a week or longer.

Benjamin Shafranck is to manage the ball club of the Deaf-Mutes' League this year, and he has thus far booked a game with the St. Joseph's Institute boys for June 7th, to be played on the grounds of the school.

Joshua Cohen, of Boston and New York, who had his Buick auto stolen in Boston on Christmas Eve 1929, is now rejoicing for having received the amount it was insured for—$1,500. As business at present is not very good, Joshua is going to await a while before investing in another auto.

Mr. Morris Kremen is now in a hospital. He was operated for acute appendicitis, and we are glad to chronicle that the operation was successful and that he is now doing nicely.

Mr. Moses J. Cohn's mother died last week.

OHIO

News items for this column can be sent to B. M. Edgar, 56 Latta Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Orville L. Wilson, a former student at our school, was found in an unconscious condition on the National highway not many miles west of Columbus. A motorist took him a hospital, where he soon died. Seems he was seen thumbing for a ride and was knocked down by some skip stop driver. His parents both met death in an accident some years ago, and he had spent most of his time with relatives in West Virginia. His remains were sent to these relatives. It seems to be getting as dangerous for the deaf to walk on a public highway as on a railroad track.

Mr. Lloyd Kaufman, who resides near Washington Court House, is reported as quite ill with some heart trouble. He has been confined to his bed since March. He graduated from our school in 1929.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allen, of Sandusky, are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter, Jacqueline May, on May 3d. As this is their first child they think little May is a wonder.

For some time the boys have felt jealous of the merry-go-round on the girls' side, but last week they were treated to a new device called "The Pull Away," and are now satisfied that the girls have no more than they have. All the playground equipment has cost $1,500, and this has all been paid from the candy store. Thus the money spent for candy comes back to the pupils in the way of amusements and other helps. The management of the store is given to some of the older pupils, and they get an idea of business and keeping accounts.

The Clonian Society presented a typewriter to the office at the Home. This society keeps up the office. Of course, Superintendent Clapham was greatly pleased with this addition to his office, and sent the society a nice letter of thanks for the surprise.

The closing date for the school has been changed to June 13th, with final examinations coming June 11th and 12th. This with the extra work of buying tickets for home-going will keep the teachers busy.

Miss Sarah Bowser, of Dayton, gave a miscellaneous shower at her home April 26th, honoring Miss Catherine Derby, who is soon to become the bride of Mr. Bernard Rata, formerly of Buffalo, N. Y. About twenty-five guests were present. Columbus was represented by Misses Virginia Thompson, Marguerite Wyckoff and Thelma Lamprich.

It seems when Mr. Roy E. Clark, of Portsmouth, left home March 12th, for Austin, Texas, he had no idea he would bring home a bride; but he happened to meet Miss Wille Irene Rogers while in Austin, and after a short courtship they were married. April 12th, he arrived at his home with his bride and his parents gave them a wedding dinner.

Miss Mary Dennis, one of our teachers, was hastily summoned home, in Middleport, Monday, as her sister suddenly passed away. About a year ago, Miss Dennis lost another sister.

The Silent Sunday School in Akron, under the leadership of Mr. Edward Toomey, had its usual Easter service with fifty-nine present. This class is educating a little deaf child in Chefoo, China. At their annual Easter service a collection for this purpose is taken.

The Ohio school sends one hundred dollars a year to the Chefoo school, and a like sum to a school in Japan. The two hundred dollars is earned through picture shows and the candy fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Munday, of Louisville, Ky., spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Munday (Clara Runck), in Dayton.

A short circuit caused a fire in a garage at the home of Mr. Alby Peterson, Dayton, and two cars as well as the garage were badly damaged, but fortunately all were well insured.

The members of the executive committee of the Alumni Association of the Ohio State School for the Deaf, met in Columbus on April 26th, with all members present, and elected Rev. Smielau, chairman; Mr. Jacobson, secretary. Others present were Messrs. Bachberle, LaFountain and N. Pilliod. Of course, president K. B. Ayers was present to discuss important matters with his committee.

When the Toledo Division, N. F. S. D., had their April meeting they paid a silent tribute to their departed brother, James Hull, of Detroit, who died a few weeks ago. He was a former member of the Toledo Division, and active in all good works among the Toledo deaf.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis LaFountain, Columbus, motored to Cincinnati for Mother's Day, so Mrs. LaFountain could be with her mother for the day.

Restaurant For Deaf.

BERLIN, April 22d.—A restaurant for the deaf and dumb has been set up here. Even the waiters are deaf and dumb, and all orders are given and carried out through the aid of sign language. Two complete bars are provided for those who want only a sip and a bite, and a card room is provided for the silent guests to play in after their meals.

Faribault, Minn.

ONLY HI-Y CLUB MADE UP ENTIRELY OF DEAF BOYS

Faribault has long been known as a live-wire city, boasting that the only Hi-Y club in the whole world, made up entirely of deaf boys, is located here. Organized five years ago at the State School for the Deaf, the club has rigidly fulfilled the requirements of a constructive program and has yearly added new members to its roster. Last week, all the officers of the noteworthy group participated in the Hi-Y Officers Training Conference and reports issued from Rochester, the convention city, indicate that the local club members were unusually prominent in the various sessions.

The Hi-Y Officers Training Conference held at Rochester Friday and Saturday was one of the most successful ever held from the standpoint of attendance as well as the work done. More than fifteen clubs were represented at the conference. St. Paul sent representatives from six clubs and then there were delegates from Albert Lea, Stillwater, Austin, Owatonna, Winona, Red Wing, Rochester and the local School for the Deaf.

In introducing the School for the Deaf delegation at the banquet held in the Congregation church, Friday evening, Mrs. E. H. Jenson, who for the past twenty-five years has been at the head of the Rochester Y work, said it was the star chapter of the state. The local club is not only the largest club in the state, but it is the only Hi-Y club in the world, made up entirely of deaf boys. Ray Perkins, who is president of the local club, was highly applauded when speaking orally, he gave an interesting and detailed account of the club's activities during the past year, before the one hundred delegates.

Supt. Skyberg and Mr. Lauritsen also gave talks on the work done by the school for the deaf club.

The reports of all the clubs were interesting and the local members received valuable ideas and inspiration, which will help them in their work during the next year.

The Faribault club was the only club giving out printed programs of their year's activities and these were enthusiastically received by the delegates and favorably commented upon.

The Minnesota School for the Deaf, Hi-Y club, by Raymond Perkins, president, delivered at the Rochester conference.

The Hi-Y club of the Minnesota School for the Deaf is said to be the largest in the state. We have at present fifty-five active members. We are trying to make the club as good as any found on the entire American continent.

We hold three regular meetings every month and weekly inner-circle meetings, making seven meetings in a month. Our board of directors meets with our leader as often as is necessary and it sometimes meets with the members of the advisory council. On the second Monday of every month we have a noon meeting in our club room. At this time we discuss such life problems as "School Spirit," and "Respect for Law." On the third Sunday of the month we give a public program which is attended by the entire student body. One month we have an outside speaker and the next month the program is in charge of our members. On the fourth Sunday evening of the month we meet in the club room again to discuss life problems. Last month the topic was "Christ a Personal Saviour," and this month it will be "Choosing My Life Work."

To help keep up interest we carry out a varied social program. In January we had a party to which the girls of the school were invited; in February we had a bean feed; in March we conducted a Keeping Fit Campaign; and in May we plan to have our picnic.

Our club is now in its fifth year and interest is at its height. We are constantly trying to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school community high standards of Christian character.—Faribault News.

Edison, agent the talkies, is reported in the New York dailies as follows:—

"I don't like these talking pictures. I can't hear a word they say. Something will have to be done for the entertainment of two million deaf persons like myself. Take this 'It' girl. I used to like her, but now she's talking too and that spoils the fun for me."

And Charles Chaplain, the Telegram of April 16th, says he is still confident that the silent motion picture is the better.

"My feeling is best shown in my own work," the comedian said. "My present picture—and I have been working on it for three years—is a silent one. Pantomime on the screen has long been an art. It is sacrificed with the advent of the voice in pictures. Its loss is to be mourned."

Chaplain said that he planned to continue making silent pictures.

SEATTLE

The monthly social of the Church of Our Redeemer, April 26th, was a great success. Many interesting games were played and nice and useful prizes were won by Mrs. Claire Reeves, Jack Bertram, Miss Marie Eggers, Morris Pederson, John Adams and Mr. Hale, of Tacoma. Parkerhouse rolls, fine salad, cake and coffee were served on the long table adorned with cards, marshmallows in form of chicks and cut flowers. The grand time is due to Mrs. G. W. Gaertner's splendid management. Mrs. Claire Reeves and Mrs. Claude Ziegler assisted. Mrs. Gaertner and W. S. Root generously helped with the dishes.

After the business meeting of the N. S. S. D. this month, some of the men joined their wives at Mr. and Mrs. John Bodley's home for "500" and bridge for a luncheon.

Charles Lynch, of Salem, Ore., surprised his fraternal brothers, by appearing at the meeting and he attended the Bodleys' party. He accompanied a Salem, Ore., bowling team in a car to Seattle and rolled in one of the tournament matches held here.

Mrs. Claude Ziegler gave a well prepared luncheon Sunday evening, April 5th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bertram. Those present were Mrs. and Mrs. Bertram, Mr. and Mrs. C. Reeves, Miss Eckersley, J. C. Howard and John Dorter. A gay time was reported. For the past four weeks were Mrs. Claire Reeves, Mrs. Jack Bertram, LeRoy Bradbury, John Dorter, Mrs. Claude Ziegler, Mrs. Robert Patterson, J. C. Howard and Mr. C. Reeves.

At the annual election of officers of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid, Mrs. Claire Reeves was elected president for a third term. Others are Mrs. W. E. Brown, Vice-President; Mrs. Claude Ziegler, Secretary; Auntie Pauline Gustin, Treasurer, and Mrs. N. C. Garrison and Mrs. A. W. Wright Directors. They were all elected unanimously.

On May 8th was held the monthly luncheon for the Seattle ladies at Mrs. John Adams' home. She proved herself a fine hostess in entertaining the eleven ladies and three men. Claire Reeves, Mrs. Bertram, Mrs. E. Eaton and Mrs. Pauline Gustin won prizes in games and whist. It was a marvelous day, hence a lovely drive to Renton.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Reeves made a business and pleasure trip to Yakima and Portland recently, visiting the Stewarts and the Westons. They paid Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lawrence in Vancouver a good visit and spent a night with Mr. and Mrs. Kautz in Portland.

There was about one foot of snow in the Cascades from the summit to Easton, about twenty miles distant, when the Reeves drove to Yakima. They learned the sad news of the passing of one of the Rogers' twins in Ellensburg, April 22d. It was the girl baby and very pretty and sweet. We all in Seattle extend our deep sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers. Mrs. George Riley, after enjoying a visit with her people here for a week returned to her home in Victoria, B. C. April 26th, taking her daughter Kathleen. Immediately after school closes the last of June, Mrs. Riley and Little Kathleen will take a steamer to San Francisco to visit her sister all summer. Mr. Riley will join her in August during his two weeks' vacation.

To attend the Portland N. F. S. D. smoker, William LaMotte, taking advantage of his two-day holiday, took a bus to the Rose City Friday morning, April 25th. The next day Mrs. W. S. Root, her son, Milo, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wright followed in the latter's car. For the benefit of the coming Oregon convention this summer, the Portland ladies gave a grab party which was enjoyed immensely.

While Mrs. Root was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reichle, the Wrights, Jean, the grandson, and Milo spent the night at Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Nelson's. The luncheon breakfast and dinner which Mrs. Nelson prepared were excellent. Sunday morning the party drove through the Portland business district for Milo, whose trip down there was his first one. Portland has many beautiful views and Milo thought this city was best next to Seattle.

On the way to the state institution in Vancouver, we met Prof. and Mrs. Divine while they were returning from their Saturday shopping. The elderly father of Mr. Divine was in the car, looking cheerful. He is on his eighty-eighth year. We were sorry to learn the recent death of Mr. Divine's mother. We were shown the main building by Mr. Divine. It is as neatly furnished for the occupants as a first-class hotel. The change in the last thirty years is great, but there are still many pleasing reminiscences to the old students of the institution.

Mrs. Divine is planning an auto trip east to visit her young daughter, Hope, and her sister.

Returning home the Seattle party, including Mr. LaMotte, called on Mr. and Mrs. Jack in Chealis in a pleasing neighborhood. Their big house is admirable and attractively furnished. That morning Mrs. Jack accidentally sprained her ankle, nevertheless, she was able to walk a little.

When W. LaMotte called on his sister in Portland, he was saddened by news of his brother who was killed by

PHILADELPHIA

News items for this column should be sent to James Reider, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The remains of Angelina Warrington, wife Greensbury Warrington, whose death we noted in the previous issue, were handsomely laid out at the Oliver H. Bair funeral parlors, 1818-20 Chestnut Street, on Tuesday evening, May 13th. A large number of deaf friends called to view them. The funeral took place the next day at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the Rev. Warren M. Smaltz officiating. Burial was in Mt. Moriah Cemetery. The husband and two married daughters by a former husband and a sister, who survive, have our sympathy.

Mrs. Joseph S. Rodgers' step-father, Frederick Riebel, for whom she kept house since her mother's death about or nearly two years ago, died suddenly on May 14th, at the age of eighty-five. His funeral took place from the Oliver H. Bair Building, 1820 Chestnut Street on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A number of Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers' deaf friends viewed the remains on the previous evening. Interment was private. Afterwards Mrs. Rodgers accompanied her sister to her home in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for a few weeks' rest.

Our Saturday evening, May 17th, Mr. Frederick H. Hughes, M.A., of Gallaudet College, Washington, D. C., gave an entertaining reading of Bravo Toro, at the Lutheran Church of the Transfiguration on West Lehigh Avenue. A good crowd of the local deaf turned out to see him, and enjoyed the reading and its excellent delivery. The proceeds were for the Edward Miner Gallaudet Memorial Fund.

We wish to remind the local deaf of the annual Strawberry Festival at All Souls' Parish House on Saturday evening, May 24th, by the Ladies' Pastoral Aid Society. Admission, 35 cents.

Mrs. Esta Brook, of Massachusetts, was a visitor at All Souls' Church on Sunday, 18th of May. She is visiting her son in Philadelphia for two weeks.

Miss Eva Sasman gave a creditable reading before the Cleric Literary Association on May 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Reider "celebrated" their fortieth wedding anniversary on Thursday, May 14th, by cleaning house.

The Beth Israel Association enjoyed a vaudeville entertainment recently.

Card playing and dancing will be the features of an event to be given under the auspices of the Patrician Catholic Deaf Circle, at the Grand Fraternity Building, on Thursday evening, May 29th. Prizes will be given. Admission, fifty cents.

The local Frats are laying plans for the twentieth anniversary celebration of their Division. It will be in the form of a banquet. Due announcement will be made by the Committee on Arrangements.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lipsett may be interested to know that the condition of Mrs. Lipsett, who suffered a paralytic stroke months ago, continues about the same as when last reported.

The Gallaudets

Dr. Cogswell, a physician in Hartford, Ct., in the early days of the nineteenth century, was the father of a deaf and dumb daughter. At that time there were no facilities in the United States to educate those afflicted in this manner, although in 1811 a grandson of Braidwood, the Scotch pioneer in this work, had attempted to establish schools for them in Virginia and in New York. Dr. Cogswell's interest stimulated the humane impulse of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, an educator and preacher; it was decided to open to deaf-mutes the door of opportunity, and Gallaudet went to Europe to learn the methods used by Braidwood and Watson in Great Britain and those followed by Sicard in France.

He returned to Hartford in 1816, bringing with him Laurent Clerc, a deaf-mute pupil of Sicard, and founded the first American institution for training those who are deprived of the faculties of hearing and speaking. Since then the name Gallaudet has been intimately associated with this philanthropic work; Miss Virginia Gallaudet, who on Wednesday died in her seventy-ninth year, was a granddaughter of the Hartford trail breaker.

Dr. Gallaudet married Sophia Fowler, one of his pupils; she was a useful assistant to her husband in his work. Their sons Thomas and Edward Miner entered wholeheartedly into the work; Thomas, a priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church, founded St. Ann's Church for deaf-mutes in 1852. Miss Virginia Gallaudet was the daughter of Thomas, and she maintained the family tradition in the field her grandfather opened.

Education of deaf-mutes and of the triply handicapped who lack also the sense of sight has been brought to a gratifying state of efficiency. Thousands of happy and usefully employed beneficiaries of the schools in which it is carried on testify to what knowledge, patience and sympathy can accomplish to unfetter minds seemingly cut off from all advantages. The progress that has been made owes much to the Gallaudet family, which for a century and more has been constant in its self-sacrificing devotion to the work Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet took up more than a century ago.
